Ed Griffin Creating opportunity and equality in the workplace

For several years Ed worked for the British Council, travelling extensively round the world, specialising in international, cultural and educational opportunities. He is now an International HR Director and organisational development consultant.

He will talk on creating opportunity and equality in the workplace, the importance of education in addressing imbalances and the need for men also to be better educated to shift prejudices in the role of Government and employers.

Melanie Elsey The Role of Primary Pupil Referral Units

Throughout her career as a primary school teacher, Melanie has always taken a special interest in the needs of the problem pupil, the child in crisis.

Having served as a Governor for a Pupil Referral Unit, she has now taken on the headship of the only Primary Pupil Referral Unit in the London Borough of Sutton. She will explain the work of the unit and why there is an increased need for this specialist provision.

Eirinn Carroll Performance Arts

Eirinn is in her final year as a student of The Brit School - a school founded and supported by the entertainment industry.

As a singer, Eirinn studies in the Music strand of the school and will talk about her life as a student there, with some musical interludes to describe her experience and entertain us.

Phyllis Hickey Specialist Provision in Education in the U.S.

Our International speaker and The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International Operation Services Administrator since August 15th, 2007.

Phyllis has been a DKG member since 1986 in Connecticut and now Alpha Chapter in Austin.

Phyllis will speak about Specialist Provision in Education in the U.S. She will give an overview of music, art, physical education and school sports programmes.

Other conference features include:

- ⇒ Annual General Meeting
- ⇒ Training for new chapter officers

- ⇒ Dinner at Brown's Restaurant on Saturday evening
- ⇒ Visit to Hampton Court Palace on Sunday

Browns Restaurant

The town of Kingston was first mentioned in the year 838 and its royal connections date back to Saxon times. Browns Bar & Brasserie sits right on one of the most prominent quays in the town and has uninterrupted views over the River Thames. Menus range from memorable classics or lighter selections, to traditional brasserie dishes. We currently have tables booked on Saturday evening at 7:30 pm. Please visit their website for more information:

Hampton Court Palace

The original Tudor palace was begun by Cardinal Wolsey in the early 16th century, but it soon attracted the attention of Henry VIII, who brought all his six wives here. Surrounded by gorgeous gardens and famous features such as the Maze and the Great Vine, the palace has been the setting for many nationally important events. We plan to visit both the palace and the beautiful gardens, and you can spend as much of the day there as you wish.
